Wednesday, March 30th.—William H. McElroy, Literary Editor of New York Tribune. Lecture, "Public Men at Public Dinners."

Friday, April 8th.—Merrill E. Gates, D. D., President of Amherst College, Mass. Lecture, "Sidney Lanier, the Poet of the South."

The three lectures by Messrs. Boyesen, McElroy and Gates will be given in the Glen Ridge Congregational Church; the readings by F. Hopkinson Smith, the concert and the unique dramatic readings by the Webling sisters in the First Presbyterian Church Sabbath School room.

The price of tickets for the whole course, including reserved seat will be two dollars; for either half of the course one dollar and a quarter; for single tickets fifty cents. Tickets will be offered for sale as heretofore by ladies and gentlemen interested and at the usual places.

This programme is an unusually inviting and meritorious one, and should have the most generous appreciation by all our towns-people. We shall have more to say hereafter of its several attractive features. The public benefit of such opportunities for entertainment of the most refining and inspiring kind is beyond estimating.

Church Notes.

The new organ built by the Harrison Organ Company for the Baptist Church, was delivered on Monday, and workmen are placing it in position.

The Rev. Elbert Clement concludes his fourth year pastorate at the Watsessing M. E. Church, with the ending of this conference year. According to the law of the church he can stay one year longer.

The Rev. Chas. A. Cook of the Baptist Church, and the Rev. H. W. Ballantine of the First Presbyterian, exchanged pulpits last Sunday morning.

The financial statement of the Church of the Sacred Heart for the year 1891, shows a prosperous condition of affairs in the parish. The receipts for the year reach the large total of $36,683.19, which includes loans on mortgage and notes amounting to $24,200. The receipts from collections regular and extra amounts to $4,415.24, which is an indication that the congregation has given liberally to the work of the church. The debt of the church amounts to $28,900, an increase of $18,200 during the year. The indebtedness of course is owing to the construction of the new church edifice which was a gigantic undertaking, but which is being successfully pushed to completion. $26,094.67 has been paid on the new edifice. Its total cost when completed will be about $50,000. All the branches of church work are in a thriving condition in the parish.

The annual meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church was held on Wednesday night. Trustees for the ensuing year were elected and other business of importance transacted. A matter of public interest was the appointment of a committee to collect historical data of the church, for use in the Centennial Celebration in 1896. The financial statement was submitted. The receipts from pew rent during the past year was $5,827.35, the largest amount ever received from that source.

The annual parish meeting of the German Presbyterian Church was held last Wednesday evening, in the lecture room of that church, elder John G. Keyler, presiding. The total receipts of the past year for running expenses were: $2,330.46. A debt on the parsonage of $200 was paid off. The building fund was increased from $138.66, to $457.97. For missionary and benevolent purposes the church raised $505.17. The free-pew and envelope contribution system, which was introduced a year ago, worked well. The church has now no debt and appears to be in a prosperous condition. The following were elected as trustees for the year 1892: Geo. J. Schmidt, Henry Meuser, Sebastian Hagen, John Meuser and Chas. L. Seibert.

Sage's Scouts Out of a Job.

A class of persons who have suffered greatly by reason of the bomb throwing tragedy have hitherto escaped the notice of the press. Mr. Sage was doing a large business in options or puts and calls, spreads and straddles. He was not so greatly absorbed in this specialty as he was in 1883. He was caught in the panic of that year and lost a good many hundred thousand dollars, and since then has been more conservative than he was before. Still, this business has amounted to a good many thousand dollars some days and has afforded a number of men an opportunity of getting a living.

These men are typical Wall street creatures. You see them hustling here and there, buttonholing men and whispering in their ears. They are tireless. They know everybody who is likely to take a little flier. Sometimes as many as a score or more of them used to go to Russell Sage every day and ask him what he would charge for options on various stocks and securities. Having got Sage's terms, they scoured the streets, professing to give tips, and in the course of a week would bring in many customers to Sage. Their usual commission was one-eighth of 1 per cent., and the smartest of them could make from ten to twenty dollars a day.

They brought Sage a great deal of business first and last. But these men have been sad eyed enough since the explosion. This part of Sage's business life is ended as much as though he had been killed on that day, and it is a serious question whether he will ever resume it. This has thrown these scouts and commission agents upon their uppers.—New York Cor. Philadelphia Press.

He Locates Oil Wells in His Dreams.

Butler county has an "oil smeller" who can give points to persons who bring out the power of the hazel rod.

Some months ago Cunningham & Co. were drilling a well on the farm of Ira Stauffer. One night while the well was drilling Casper Keichner, a crippled jeweler of Zelienople, dreamed that the well was dry, and in the same vision he saw a spot on the farm of John Shriver, near the Stauffer farm, where a well was flowing 1,000 barrels per day.

Keichner related his dream to Cunningham & Co., but a smile was all he got for his trouble. When the well on the Stauffer farm was completed it was a first class duster. In their adversity the owners of the well went to Keichner and asked him to show them the spot on the Shriver farm where in his dream he had seen the coveted 1,000 barrel well. He accompanied them to the place and a well was started on the spot. A few weeks ago the pay streak was reached, the well actually flowed 1,000 barrels a day and the place is the richest oil farm in Butler county today.—Pittsburg Cor. Philadelphia Times.

A Woman's Strange Bequest.

A very aged lady, Mme. Guzman, who died on the 30th of June last in Pau, was deeply interested, especially during her last years, in the descriptions of the planet Mars and the theoretical possibility of communication between our planet and the neighbor worlds. Furthermore, expressing in her will a desire peculiarly astronomical, she made the following legacy:

A prize of 100,000 francs is bequeathed to the Institute of France (science section) for the person, no matter of what nationality, who shall discover within ten years from the present time a means of communicating with a star (planet or otherwise) and of receiving a reply.

The testatrix has especially in view the planet Mars, upon which the attention and investigation of savants has been directed already. If the Institute of France does not accept the legacy it will pass to the Institute of Milan, and in case of a new refusal to the Institute of New York.—Cor. New York Herald.

Two Historic Ships.

Out in the bay stands the "dear old Hartford," and by her side the heroic Nipsic. It is to be hoped that both these historic ships may soon be repaired. All the world associates the Hartford with the exploits at Mobile bay, but besides this interesting fact she is one of the few remaining and one of the most beautiful of her type. Hers is indeed a heart of oak. She is not "dead," as an old sailor lately said with a sigh. She only sleeps.

The Nipsic is still stanch and sound. A ship that could make her way home (half around the world) with a storm twisted propeller such as brought her up from Samoa after the tempest of March, 1889, is not a ship to be set lightly aside.—San Francisco Cor. Augusta Chronicle.

Not So Funny After All.

A supposed practical joker went into the Staten Island ferry slip on Saturday, and exhibiting a black bag declared it contained dynamite and that he intended to blow up the building. Everybody made a break for the door except a policeman in citizen's clothes, who knocked the man down and captured the bag, which was found to contain nothing dangerous. The practical joker had his jaw broken by the policeman's blow.—New York Letter.

A Striking Jury.

Without doubt the most unique strike on record was that which interrupted the trial of the Jones versus Gordon debt case at Burlington, Ia. The jury had arrived at a verdict but refused to report till paid their fees. The plaintiff, who had demanded the jury, was anxious to learn the verdict and paid the fees. Much to his chagrin the verdict was against him.—Cor. New York World.

A Record Breaking Year.

Eighteen hundred and ninety-one seems to have been sort of record breaking year. Horses have trotted faster in the same time during 1891 than ever before; trains have run faster and further; ocean steamships have made quicker trips; crops have been bigger and manufacturers have prospered as never before.—New York Press.

A Littl Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich. and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free a Geo. M. Wood's Drugstore.

The agents of a certain publisher are now visiting our merchants soliciting patronage for a directory and as a means of securing such patronage are circulating a report that Moffat's Directory will not be issued this year. I need hardly remind business men that when a man has got to lie in order to get patronage that he will not hesitate to cheat. If I can only come across some of those agents I will put them out of the way for the directory season, and in the meantime I hope our Bloomfield merchants will show them the door.
